

Armstrong Redwoods State Reserve & Austin Creek State Recreation Area Volunteer Program

- Title: Armstrong Visitor Center Volunteer
- Purpose: To assist park visitors in developing an appreciation for and knowledge of our natural, cultural, and historical resources.
- Duties: Open and close the Visitor Center. Answer questions and give accurate information to park visitors on the location of facilities, trails, day use areas, campground information, natural and cultural history of the area. Perform simple sales and accounting of Stewards of the Coast and Redwoods merchandise.
- Skills/
Qualifications: This position requires a willingness to learn and share significant natural, cultural, and historical facts with the visiting public, the ability to be courteous and to offer friendly, accurate, and appropriate assistance to the public whenever possible, ability to work independently, as well in cooperation with park staff and other volunteers, personnel, State Parks' personnel, and volunteers.
- Supervisor: Russian River Sector Superintendent Mike Lair or designee
- Reports to: Stewards' Volunteer Programs Manager
- Time: 3-6 hours per month, year round. Hours to be arranged.
- Training: A formal training course of 6 hours is required to become a Visitor Center Volunteer.
- Benefits: Learn about the natural, cultural, and historical resources of the area, meet new and interesting people from all over the world while enriching and enhancing the experience of park visitor. Eligible for a District or a Statewide Volunteer in Parks Day Use Pass.

Volunteer Signature

Date